The Learning Technology (LTD) powers the EdTech Index, where educators go to find learning solutions.

Why join the EdTech Index?

Listing your product in the EdTech Index gives you visibility to a monthly audience of up to 45,000 potential customers and allows you to position your brand as a thought leader in the industry. Capture educators' attention and earn their confidence in your edtech solutions by:

- Showcasing your credentials and endorsements.
- Using visual media to demonstrate your product's distinctive features.
- Connecting with specialized educator groups
